Comment Reasons:

Comment: I strongly support this development. From a woman's perspective, a dedicated community centre is essential. It would provide a safe and welcoming space for women to access wellbeing events, fitness activities, workshops, and social support - helping to address isolation, mental health, and the pressures many women face as carers and mothers.

There is also a clear shortage of structured youth facilities in Sutton, and this centre would offer positive, supervised activities that give young people direction and belonging. At the same time, with a growing elderly population, especially older women who may live alone, the centre would provide much-needed safe spaces, companionship, and organised programmes to keep them socially active.

Overall, this development would deliver real, practical value to women, youth, and the elderly, while strengthening the wider community.

Thank you for your kind consideration.
