Comment: Planning decisions must be evidence-led and based on an objective assessment of local need.

The 2021 Census confirms that the Muslim and Hindu populations in Sutton are identical in size (7.0%). However, the borough and its immediate borders already feature a significant number of functional masjid and Islamic centres, including:

- Sutton Central Masjid (25 Carshalton Rd, Sutton SM1 4LF)
- Sutton Islamic Centre (62 Oakhill Rd, Sutton SM1 3AG)
- Muslim Cultural & Welfare Association of Sutton (Wentworth Hall, 80 Ruskin Rd, Carshalton SM5 3DH)
- Masjid Abu Bakar Al-Siddiq (The Market, Wrythe Ln, Rosehill SM5 1JQ)
- The Baitul Futuh Mosque and the Morden Islamic Community Centre (Massive regional facilities in Morden).

Granting permission for another facility while other faith groups (and the 32.3% of residents with "No Religion") lack adequate neutral, shared community spaces is a clear breach of the NPPF Paragraph 98 requirement to "plan positively for the provision of shared spaces... for all sections of the community."
