Comment: Dear Case Officer

I am writing in support of this project and commend the planners for their honest and forthright approach to planning, building and sharing the details with the public.

I also appreciate the concerns being raised which I think have been clearly rebutted by fellow commentators such as noise privacy traffic and neighbourhood physical outlook. They all are genuine concerns but with little understanding and support these concerns can be easily alleviated.

I would urge people to look more carefully into the planning and what is being asked of them and to support their fellow residents and allow this facility to develop, otherwise they would be undermining a religious groups' right to freedom of worship and wellbeing who are their fellow residents and community members.
