Comment Reasons:

Comment: I have grown up in the area & have seen Cheam & Belmont retain its family atmosphere more than other areas. It would be of great benefit to use the disused premises to provide facilities for all ages eg:

sports / Keep fit , coffee mornings , events to promote neighbourhood cohesion.

Having a community hub would meet the needs of promotion of healthy living & improving physical & mental health.

Eg. For women to have easy access / low cost exercise classes.

Having a safe space for children & young adolescents to engage in leisure & learning activities which the government encourages- anything to get children moving & less on their gadgets!

Similar hubs in other areas hold basic life support & opportunities that would be accessible for local residents & make us aware of our neighbours & to integrate. This would be great in an area which has lost a post office & bank on its high street.

I feel very strongly about promoting considerate parking, something I hear the organisers mention a lot.
