Comment Reasons:

Comment: I think there is now too much rabble rousing going on in the comments section. It is a simple planning development request and I fully support the project to go ahead as it is a longtime coming for Sutton's ever expanding Muslim community needs in the area, as they are not met with the current situation of meeting up in several makeshift places. It makes sense that they should be their own place of worship and community services now and this project has it all and more. And doesn't obstruct anyone's traffic peace etc.

I recommend that the honourable case officer actions on the merit of the project

Regards

Shakeel
