Comment Reasons:

Comment: I believe this is a fantastic opportunity for the local community to have a hub which would be a safe place for people of all ages to gather for meaningful interactions and social connection.

For several years this same community organisation has been arranging a variety of activities, social gatherings, talks, and Friday prayers in a local church hall and attendees have consistently been respectful of neighboring areas.

Having a dedicated space would allow the inclusion of more regularly planned small groups, such as sports sessions, activities for the youth and family orientated events. Access to a community hub of this type within walking distance would allow me to become involved in more activities.
