Comment Reasons:

Comment: I'm concerned that there will be a significant increase in traffic; this is a quiet residential area and the actual location is a cul-de-sac- parking will be a nightmare!

There is a local school nearby and when school starts and finishes, there is a significant amount of traffic and activity; the proposals for the new site will exacerbate the issues with traffic further.

I am also concerned whether arriving for prayers very early in the morning will also affect local residents- this is a quiet residential area and it could have a significant impact on those living close to the site.
