Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: Sir,

This is a wholly inappropriate application based on location i.e. closeness to residential properties, a large school with very young children attending and a local road system including bus routes already unable to cope at school times.

There are no mitigating circumstances available in respect of the application.

The planning officer who initially gave an indication of potential permission for change of use clearly had little knowledge of the area and made a mistake.
